Description

A substantial five bedroom detached family home located in the heart of this popular village with a thriving local community. The property stands amid established landscaped gardens which enjoy far reaching views to the rear over open countryside. The versatile and generously proportioned interior flows around a central hallway with cloakroom, an impressive sitting room with open fireplace and double doors opening into a dining room and double glazed conservatory. A door from the hallway opens into a spacious kitchen/breakfast room fitted with a comprehensive range of wall and base cupboards complimented by granite work surfaces and a useful utility room. The first floor boasts a magnificent master bedroom suite which is a particular feature of the property, benefitting from an en suite bathroom and dressing area. There are three further double bedrooms, one with en suite shower room, a single bedroom and family bathroom. Externally the large gardens are predominantly laid to lawn and are stocked with an abundance of plants, shrubs and trees which provide a high degree of privacy. There is an attractive timber decked seating area at the rear of the garden. A driveway to the front approaches an integral double garage with ample parking for several cars.

Situation

Occupying a pleasant position in the heart of Brinkworth, the longest village in England. Local facilities include a primary school, nursery, church and a public house famous for its good food. Brinkworth lies four miles east of the historic market town of Malmesbury, which is reputed to be the oldest borough in the country. This thriving pretty market town offers a wealth of buildings of architectural interest including its ancient Abbey, whilst also having a wide range of shops, a Waitrose, award winning schools and leisure facilities. Early tributaries of The River Avon pass around the town with pretty walks and the countryside close at hand. There are public transport services and good road access to the larger towns of Cirencester, Chippenham, Swindon, Bath and Bristol whilst the M4 junction 17 is only five miles south. Trains from Chippenham (10 miles) and Kemble (5 miles) link with London Paddington within approximately 1 hour 15 minutes.
