Auctioneer's Comment: A lot less ewes about today as there has been across other centers this week, however an excellent trade was seen with the majority of sheep here being Welsh/Hill ewes. The buyers definitely still want numbers therefore much larger entries are required for next week's sale. We had 6 buyers present today who require a large number of ewes between them. We also have several buyers for good under Mule grazing ewes next week. Please call Lloyd with any entries.
