BRECON MARKET REPORT – PRIS Y FARCHNAD DYDD MAWRTH - TUESDAY 3rd SEPTEMBER 2019.

450 LAMBS

A slightly larger entry on the week again nowhere near the volume required on the day for the buyer attendance. The trade was consistent with the previous afternoon and the total clearance to a full buyer contingent was pleasing. The show of lambs was nowhere near the quality of the previous week with those best lambs forward sold at a marked premium. The best lambs sold to £1.92ppk and £94.08 from M/s Brute, Gwndwnwal. It is again reiterated that with this level of buyer attendance we will need a much larger entry going forward.

SQQ £1.69ppkg

350 CULL SHEEP

A much better entry of cull sheep following the disappointing show of last week. The ewes sold to a similar trade to the last few weeks for all categories and a much improved return for the smaller and leaner types; with Farmer buyers looking for ewes to graze. Much larger entries of fat and plain ewes are required in the ensuing weeks.

Overall average Ewes £50.
