Auctioneer's Comment: A better trade with more requirement for 41-43kg lambs which will help. Also one buyer requiring leaner lambs which are worth sorting out of a bunch. Heavier lambs not quite the trade of last week but still a good trade on those smarter sorts.

Auctioneer's Comment: A good entry of cull ewes saw a very good trade throughout. All breeds/types of ewes were in demand with competitive bidding on all lots. The Continental X ewes and kill types were the trade of the day. More could have easily been sold to an advantage.
