MCCARTNEYS LIVESTOCK MARKETS
COVID-19 RULES UPDATE

As from Monday 19th July, restrictions in England only have eased to allow greater contact of people.

We are very pleased that we can welcome you back into our English livestock markets. Our cafes will also re open in line with legislation.

As you all know, there are currently very large numbers of Covid cases and our priority is to keep our staff and customers as safe as possible.

If you are visiting any of our English livestock markets, we ask that you do not attend if you have any symptoms of Covid 19 at all.

We strongly recommend social distancing, and the wearing of face coverings. Regular washing of hands and sanitising is also very important and facilities are available at all our markets.

Please can we ask you to adhere to these recommendations to protect us all.

For any further information upon any of the above please telephone:
